

Financial Overview

Financial statements describe the position and performance of an organisation. A balance sheet records assets, liabilities and equity. An income statement records revenues and expenses. A cash flow statement explains movements in cash.

Try it

A student society receives 10,000 rupees and spends 6,000 rupees. Explain why the remaining cash does not always equal profit.